

Workshops with Morocco

Saturday - Choreography - 4-hours - 11:00am - 4:00pm ~ Hoover Theater
Join us as Morocco presents a choreography to a song entitled "Boss Ba'ah" ("Look Now!") by noted Arabic singer Shereen. This choreography is upbeat modern Egyptian Oriental/Raks Sharki in style and is both fun and complex.

Sunday - Master Class - 2.5 hours - 10:00am - 12:30pm - Hoover Theater
Join us for a master class with Morocco as she guides the workshop participants through the process of totally being with the music. She will be working with a piece of music by George Lamamm entitled "Ahlam" ("Dreams") a work that is slow, dreamy and beautiful.

Sunday - Guedra Workshop - 3:00pm - 4:30pm - Hoover Theater
This workshop is included in the price of admission although dance space is limited to about 50 participants, there is plenty of seating for those who are interested in observing this workshop. Learn the beautiful and complex movements of this traditional "blessing" dance of the Tuareg people of North Africa.

Hafla at the Hoover

Festival Dancing - Sunday, 12:30pm - 3:00pm

Hafla at the Hoover will have a block of festival dancing on Sunday from 12:30pm - 3:00pm. Current members of SF/BA MECDA are invited to send us a request for an 7 minute troupe or soloist slot. We will probably have a waiting list for performances, but you never know when a dance slot will open up, so bring music and a costume! Email info@sfbamecda.org with your request.

Pro Showcase - Sunday, 5:00pm - 7:00pm

Morocco is headlining our evening showcase will feature an eclectic mix of styles and genres by some of the Bay Area's top professional performers and dance instructors.

DVD Fundraiser for Next Door

Are you performing at Hafla at the Hoover? You can own a copy of your own performance and help us support our favorite charity. Our DVD fundraiser offers you a copy of your performance for only $25. Pick up a flyer at the event for more details. $5 of each video goes to Next Door, Solutions to Domestic Violence.

Brought to you by SF/BA MECDA

SF/BA MECDA is a not-for-profit dance-arts organization run by dancers for dancers. Our twin missions are to support our local dance community by hosting dance events that feature the best in Bay Area talent while offering dancers of all skill levels the opportunity to dance and learn.
